

Representative Ryan Mackenzie (R-PA-007)

<https://mackenzie.house.gov>

Capitol Address:

121 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515
(484) 781-6932 (phone)

District Address:

1125 S. Cedar Crest Blvd. Ste. 109 (Bottom Floor)
Allentown, PA 18101

Biography:

Family : Wife, Chloe Hayden Mackenzie; one child; Birthplace : Allentown, PA; Assumed Office : 1/3/2025;

Score: 94%

2025-2026 Regular Session (119th)

| Result | Description | Vote | |
|--------|---------------------------------|------|---|
| None | H.R. 38 - Cosponsors (1/3/2025) | N/A | — |

2023-2024 Regular Session

| Result | Description | Vote | |
|--------|--|------|---|
| Passed | Outlaws the private sale of long guns by establishing a universal registration check system. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | A vote on whether this bill, establishing Red Flag Gun Confiscation Orders was constitutional. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | Final passage of Red Flag Gun Confiscation Orders. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | A vote on the constitutionality of HB 777, which would ban unserialized gun parts and DIY gun kits. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | Floor vote on the constitutionality of HB 338, the mandatory lost and stolen firearms reporting bill. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Failed | Final passage of HB 338, which mandates reporting of lost and stolen firearms. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |

| | | | |
|--------|---|---|---|
| Passed | This bill would enhance the Pennsylvania State Police "record of sale system" with mandated electronic reporting, thus establishing an electronic gun registry. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote.Note: This bill FAILED because it didn't have a constitutional majority of 102 votes to pass. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | Final passage of HB 335, a bill that would ban accelerated trigger activators like binary triggers and bump stocks. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote.Note: This bill FAILED because it didn't have the constitutional majority of 102 votes required to pass. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | Final passage of bill that bans unserialized firearms like DIY gun kits. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |

2021-2022 Regular Session

| Result | Description | Vote | |
|--------|--|------|---|
| Passed | Committee vote to report Constitutional amendments to restrict the Governor's power during a state of emergency. These executive actions arbitrarily shut down gun stores, commercial ranges, and gun clubs. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | Floor vote for Constitutional amendments to restrict the Governor's power during a state of emergency. These executive actions arbitrarily shut down gun stores, commercial ranges, and gun clubs. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | Committee vote to report Constitutional amendments to restrict the Governor's power during a state of emergency. These executive actions arbitrarily shut down gun stores, commercial ranges, and gun clubs. | Y | ✓ |
| Failed | Gutting amendment to HB 55. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | Floor vote for Constitutional amendments to restrict the Governor's power during a state of emergency. These executive actions arbitrarily shut down gun stores, commercial ranges, and gun clubs. | Y | ✓ |
| Failed | Guts the bill and would have repealed statewide preemption. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |

| | | | |
|--------|--|---|---|
| Passed | Strengthens the PA firearms preemption law by allowing recovery of legal fees and damages in lawsuits against local governments that violate it. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | This was a motion to appeal the ruling of the chair that would have allowed an amendment to be considered that would have established Red Flag Gun Confiscation Orders. A pro-gun vote is a YES vote. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | This was a motion to appeal the ruling of the chair that would have allowed an amendment to be considered that would have established a 48 hour waiting period to purchase a firearm. A pro-gun vote is a YES vote. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | This was a motion to appeal the ruling of the chair that would have allowed an amendment to be considered that would have established community violence prevention funding, which is a way to backdoor gun control. A pro-gun vote is a YES vote. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | This was a motion to appeal the ruling of the chair that would have allowed an amendment to be considered that would have established a terrorist watchlist. Anyone's name who was added to the watchlist would be prohibited from purchasing a firearm. A pro-gun vote is a YES vote. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | Anti-gun procedural motion. A YES vote is a pro-gun vote. | Y | ✓ |
| Passed | Representative Bernstine's motion to table all remaining anti-gun amendments. A YES vote is a pro-gun vote. | Y | ✓ |
| Failed | This was a motion to table the Constitutional Carry bill. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Failed | A motion to postpone would have killed Constitutional Carry. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Failed | A motion to postpone would have killed Constitutional Carry. A NO vote is a pro-gun vote. | N | ✓ |
| Passed | Final passage for Constitutional Carry. A YES vote is a pro-gun vote. | Y | ✓ |
| Failed | This was a motion to suspend the rules to consider HB 770, a semi-automatic rifle ban. | N | ✓ |

2017-2018 Regular Session

| Result | Description | Vote | |
|--------|--|------|---|
| Passed | This bill created a permanent gun ban for a final Protection from Abuse (PFA) order. | Y |  |